

Satish Chandra Memorial School

Class VII

English

Case Study and Hots

Read the passage and answer the questions carefully :

The Mediterranean Sea Has A Coastline Of About 28,600 Miles. The Only Independent Nations In The Mediterranean Are Malta And Cyprus

These countries are often referred to as the Mediterranean States. Cyprus Is One Of Just Two Nations And The First In The World To Include Its Map On Its Flag (The Second Is Kosovo).

The Maltese Love Fireworks And Malta Holds The Guinness World Record For The Largest Catherine Wheel. It was built by Lily Fireworks factory in Maquabba on June 2011. Sicily Is The Largest Mediterranean Island With An Area Of 9,927 Square Miles

This part of Italy is surrounded by three different seas: the Tyrrhenian Sea, the Mediterranean Sea and the Ionian Sea

Of The 1,400-Plus Greek Islands, 83 Are In The Mediterranean Sea

The 10 largest Greek islands in the Med are: Crete, Euboea, Lesbos, Rhodes, Chios, Corfu, Lemnos, Samos, Naxos and Zakynthos.

The Highest Temperature Of The Mediterranean Is In The Gulf Of Sidra, Off The Coast Of Libya, Where The Average Temperature In August Is About 31°C
Eight Different Species Of Whales, Dolphins And Porpoises Can Be Found In The Mediterranean

The Gibraltar Strait, which connects the Atlantic to the Mediterranean, is a hotspot for killer whale sightings during the tuna season in early spring and through summer.

The Sparkling Blue Waters Of The Mediterranean Sea Are Home To Over 700 Varieties Of Fish And Almost 10 Per Cent Of The World' Marine Species
At 3,719 Metres, Pico De Teide On The Mediterranean Island Of Tenerife Is The Highest Point In Spain

Q1. How long is the Mediterranean Coastline?

Q2. Name the two independent nations in Mediterranean.

Q3. Which nation is the second in world to include its map in the flag?

Q4.Name the highest peak of Spain.

Q5.In which regions of Mediterranean the highest temperature is recorded?

Q6.Which strait connects Atlantic to Mediterranean?

Q7. What type of aquatic animals are sighted at the end of spring and beginning of summer?

Q8. How many islands are there in the Mediterranean Sea?

Q9. Write about the country which you would like to go? Why?

Q10. Write some facts you learned about Killer Whale.