

The Ashes That Made Trees Bloom

Word	Meaning
Daimios	Refers to wealthy landholding magnates of 19th century Japan
Snug	Warm and comfortable
Dame	A woman
Blue crape	A thin material made of cotton and silk
Dumb	Unable to speak
Tidbit	A small and nice piece of food
Chopstick	A pair of thin sticks used for eating, especially in Asian countries
Hoe	A garden tool used for turning up surface of the ground, with the grass growing on it
Sod	Surface of the ground
Whining	To make a loud, unhappy, crying voice
Yard	A piece of land next to or around a house
Feast	A large or special meal
Smother	To cover something with too much of something
Motion	To make action with your body parts to tell somebody about something
Scratch	To rub or damage the surface with your nails
Lo!	An old word used for telling someone to look at something

Wicked	Morally wrong and cruel
Dainties	Tasty, expensive foods
Treasure	A collection of valuable things like gold or silver
Coax	To influence someone gently
Spade	A tool used for digging
Beneath	Under
Crone	Refers to an ugly woman
Flung	To throw something carelessly with great force
Carcass	The dead body of an animal
Heap	To put a large amount of something
Mourn	To feel sad or express sorrow for someone's death
Incense	A substance that produces a pleasant smell
Grave	A place where a dead body is buried
Covetous	Wanted to have something that other people has
Mortar	A strong bowl
Pound	To hit something very hard and making a lot of noise
Mill	Refers to a machine or apparatus for grinding

Pastry	Baked products such as cake
Dough	A mixture of flour, water, fat etc. used for making pastry
Examine	To test
Chisel	A sharp tool used for cutting or shaping wood or stone
Smash	To break something
Peep	To look at something secretly and quickly
Envious	Wanting something that someone does or have
Hag	An ugly, unpleasant old woman
Gleaming	Shining
Stingy	Not generous or unwilling to spend money
Drips	Small drops of liquid
Foul	Very bad or unpleasant taste
Sprinkle	To scatter in drops or particles
Wither	To become dry
Miserable	Very unhappy or uncomfortable

Pile	A lot of something
Bare	Not covered with leaves
Thief	Someone who steals something
Sprout	To grow or produce new leaves
Mean	Unkind and unfair
Impertinence	Rudeness
Prostrate	Lying face downward
Procession	A line of people or vehicles moving in a formal way
Palanquin	A closed couch used by wealthy people to travel, carried by four strong persons
Pretend	Acting in a certain manner to make others believe that something is true when it is not
Scatter	To throw or drop things so that they over an area
Gleeful	Happy and excited
Robe	Dress
Castle	A grand palace
Choke	Not able to breathe
Pomp	Formal ceremony

Dignity	A calm and serious manner
Tumble	A sudden downfall
Dwelt	Inhabit or live somewhere