

Transformation of Sentences

Interrogative to Assertive:

1. Can the leopard change his spots?
2. Were we born simply to die?
3. What though the field be lost?
4. Can you ever forget her kindness to us?
5. Is there anything greater than love?
6. Who would not cry when struck?
7. Who can surpass her in loveliness?
8. How can man die better than facing fearful odds?
9. When can their glory fade?
10. When will he become an engineer?

Assertive to Interrogative:

- 1) There is nothing better than a busy life.
- 2) Prevention is better than cure.
- 3) Nobody can deny that honesty is the best policy.
- 4) We shall never forget our national heroes.
- 5) No one can stand against a woman's will.
- 6) You cannot get blood out of a stone.
- 7) Prevention is better than cure.
- 8) No one can touch pitch without being defiled.
- 9) No one can raise a house on sand.
- 10) There is nothing brighter than hope.