

1. Understanding Native Accents: In your listening skill development classes, you were exposed to various IELTS audio recordings, which introduced you to new words and pronunciations. How has this experience helped you understand native accents in real-life situations?	2. Formal Communication Skills: While learning to write complaint letters, you identified various government departments and practiced using formal expressions. How has this knowledge influenced your ability to address real-life problems effectively through formal communication?
3. Personal Expression Through Diary Writing: Diary writing helped you express personal feelings using expressive words and phrases. How has this habit influenced your daily life, and in what ways do you apply it outside the classroom?	4. Developing an Inquisitive Approach to Grammar: Your grammar lessons followed an inductive approach, encouraging reasoning and prompting you to ask ‘why.’ How has this inquisitive perspective changed your understanding and application of grammar in real-life communication?
5. Enhancing Creativity Through Story Completion: You practiced story completion exercises to develop your creative writing skills. How have these exercises influenced your ability to explore new ideas and express yourself in writing?	6. Self-Reflection and Personal Growth: Writing about inspirational figures helped you reflect on the impact of various individuals in your life. How has this self-reflective writing influenced your understanding of your choices, and how do you apply this knowledge in your personal growth?
7. Fostering Creativity Through Poetry Extension: Extending a poem required you to engage in creative thinking and expression. How has this exercise nurtured your creativity, and how do you incorporate it into your everyday life?	8. Indigenous Cultural Literature and Real-Life Insights: Through research on literary figures like Tenali Raman, Gopal Bhar, and Akbar Birbal, you explored indigenous cultural stories. How has this knowledge helped you in real-life situations, such as storytelling, problem-solving, or understanding cultural perspectives?