

How the Camel Got his Hump

MCQ-Based Questions

1. State the Reason of the Djinn giving the Camel a hump instead of punishing him in any other way.

- (a) To make him look funny.
- (b) So he could store food and work continuously.
- (c) To make him feel embarrassed.
- (d) To stop him from running away.

2. Choose the message that the story suggest about teamwork and individual responsibility.

- (a) Teamwork means doing all the work yourself.
- (b) Responsibility must be shared fairly by all members.
- (c) Lazy members should be ignored.
- (d) Only leaders should work hard.

3. Identify the correct form of the verb to fill in the blank from the passage:

"The Camel _____ at his own reflection in the pool of water since morning."

- (a) looks
- (b) has been looking
- (c) was looked
- (d) look

4. Choose lesson that can be drawn from the way the Camel reacted even after getting the hump?

- (a) True change happens instantly.
- (b) External changes alone cannot change attitude.
- (c) Punishment always makes people work happily.
- (d) Once lazy, always lazy.

Short Answer Type Questions

Answer the following questions in 50-60 words:

1. Describe the effect of the Camel's repeated use of "Humph!" on him.

Higher Order Thinking Questions

Answer the following questions in 120 words:

1. "If you were another character in the story, how would you feel about the Camel's behavior and what solution would you suggest?"