

Satish Chandra Memorial School

Class 7 Class Test

Ch- On Equality (Civics)

1. What does the principle “equal before the law” mean in the Indian context?

- a) Only the rich must follow the law
- b) Laws are made only for educated people
- c) Every citizen is subject to the same law regardless of status
- d) Laws change based on religion and caste

2. Assertion (A): The Constitution of India prohibits untouchability.

Reason (R): All citizens should have access to public places without discrimination.

- a) Both A and R are true, and R is the correct explanation of A
- b) Both A and R are true, but R is not the correct explanation of A
- c) A is true, but R is false
- d) A is false, but R is true

3. Which of the following best explains the global nature of inequality in democracies?

- a) Only India struggles with inequality
- b) All citizens in democratic nations are always treated equally
- c) Democracies don't need to worry about inequality
- d) Inequality exists even in developed democracies like the USA

4. Why does inequality still exist despite laws promoting equality in India?

- a) The Constitution is not followed by anyone
- b) Discriminatory attitudes in society still persist
- c) People are not aware of the Constitution
- d) Only poor people experience inequality

5. A student with a disability is carried down stairs daily. What does this situation show?

- a) The student enjoys being carried
- b) The building is accessible to everyone
- c) There is a lack of proper facilities and dignity is compromised
- d) There is no law to protect such students

6. Based on the scene described, which issue related to equality does the image best highlight?

- a) Unequal access to shopping markets
- b) Discrimination based on economic status and social attitude
- c) Unemployment in rural areas
- d) Freedom of occupation in democracy

7. How does the idea of “equal before the law” influence the way citizens should be treated in a democracy? Explain any two. (2)

8. Discuss two way in which the midday meal programme helps reduce inequality. (2)