

Change the speech of the following sentences:

1. Mohan said to his friends, "Let us go to the Cinema."
2. I said to the villagers, "Let us help the poor."
3. The children said, "Let us play together."
4. He said, "Let us work for the Nation."
5. He said, "Let us go for a walk."
6. Binay said to his master, "Let me go home."
7. The principal said to the peon, "Let the man come in."
8. She suggested that they should go for a walk.
9. Ravi proposed that they should start the project the next day.
10. The teacher suggested that they should discuss that after lunch.
11. He suggested that we should not waste time.
12. The teacher ordered the peon to let the students leave early.
13. The hotel manager requested the guest to let the house staff clean the room.
14. The teacher suggested to Mrs Bajaj that Manisha should do whatever she liked, as she needed encouragement at that stage.