Dear Nikhil Hope you're doing well. I'd like to share my first experience of travelling by aeroplane, which was on 1st June when I flew to Kashmir for my vacation. I was nervous that morning, but the air hostesses and other staff were very helpful. Once we wore our seat belts, the plane took off — my heart skipped a beat, and I almost panicked until my mom held my hand and smiled. Looking out of the window, everything seemed tiny and far below. Soon, breakfast was served, and it felt thrilling to eat while flying through the clouds. The view outside was breathtaking. Before I knew it, we had landed at our destination, saving a lot of travel time. It was truly an amazing experience, and I'm eager to fly again. Take care, Bye! Sourabh
