

STD -II

Situation based questions.

Q1) You're playing a board game with friends, and one of your friends is always changing the rules to win. What would you do?

Tick the correct options.

- A: Get angry and upset, refusing to play.
- B: Try to talk to your friend calmly and explain that changing the rules isn't fair.
- C: Start changing the rules too, to try and win.
- D: Ignore the rule changes and play your best, hoping for a fair outcome.

Q2) You left your homework at home, and the teacher is about to collect it. What would you do?

Tick the correct options.

- A: Pretend you finished it and hand in a blank page.
- B: Tell the teacher the truth, explaining what happened, and offer to bring it tomorrow.
- C: Blame someone else for not reminding you.
- D: Ask a friend if you can copy their homework.

Subjective.

Q3) You see old person carrying heavy bag on your way to school. What should you do to help him ? Why it is important to be kind to others?

Ans-

Q4) Imagine a new friend has joined your class who is feeling lonely. What would you do to make him/her feel like he/ she is a part of your family at school?

Ans-

Q5) A new boy came to Onshangla's class who could not see. What are some ways you can help a new classmate who is blind?

Ans-