

Situation based question practice
on Out in the garden.

1. 'I bounce my ball.' Suppose your ball bounces away into a pond.

Share your way of getting the ball back.

2. Suppose you are in the garden on a sunny day with your friends.

Suggest a few games and activities you would like to play with your friends.

3. Imagine flying a kite on a windy day. Explain briefly your adventure while flying it.

4. If your ball bounces away into your neighbour's garden, suggest your gentle response to get it back.

5. 'I fly my kite.' If your kite flies too high and gets stuck in a tree, suggest some ways to get it out.

6. While catching a ball, your friend misses the ball and feels upset. Explain your ways of cheering him up.

7. If you were in the garden with a ball, a kite and there's a slide and a swing, how would you like to spend your whole day?

8. Think of a time when you had to share a toy or a game with your friends. How did you share? Why do you think sharing is important?

9. Imagine you are playing with a ball in a garden. Explain your ways of making sure that everyone gets a turn in the game to play.

10. Imagine sitting quietly in a garden in the evening. Explain the sights and sounds you would like to notice sitting over there.