

When two words are joined together to form a new word with its own meaning, it is called a compound word. Example - overcoat.

Write the compound words using the clues given below.

1. The day you were born. - birthday.
2. Corn that has been popped. -
3. A tower with a light that guides ships. -
4. Chair that moves on wheels. -
5. Children of your class. -
6. A chair with support for arms. -
7. A glass container with sand used for measuring time. -
8. Having leaves that stay green all year. -

9. A box to keep your tools. -

10. A glass building where plants that need protection from cold weather are grown. -