

Diwali

Diwali is one of the most important festivals in India.

It is also called the festival of lights.

People clean and decorate their homes with diyas, candles, and rangoli.

On this day, we worship Goddess Lakshmi and Lord Ganesha.

Children enjoy bursting crackers and lighting sparklers.

Families wear new clothes and exchange sweets and gifts.

The night looks very bright and beautiful with lights.

Diwali teaches us the victory of good over evil.

It is a festival of joy, love, and togetherness.

Everyone feels very happy on Diwali.
