to the teacher

the children speak. Encourage them to speak in English. Accept answers even if they respond in only one word or a phrase. Encourage children to explain. For instance, if children say 'The cloud is red', they may be thinking of clouds at sunset.

Answer the questions asked by the teacher.

Teacher: When you look up in the sky, what do you see?

Child 1: When I look up, I see ---

Teacher: When you look down at the ground, what do you see?

Child 2: When I look down, I see ---

Teacher: When you close your eyes, what do you see?

Child 3: When I close my eyes, I see ---

Note to the teacher

- All answers are acceptable, real or imaginary.
- Provide regular practice of the above sentence structures.
- Help children answer in full sentences.

1. In the poem, what animals did the child see as he looked up at the clouds?

The child could see a big white bear and elephant

2. What do you see in the sky during the day?

Write any three things you see.

I see sun, clouds, birds,

3. What do you see in the sky at night?

I see stars, moon, clouds

Picture time

Join the dots in alphabetical order and colour the picture.

A Repeat after the teacher.

The poem has the word 'back'.

Listen to your teacher and say the following words, with your teacher.

pack

lack jack

rack

pick tick

flick

thick

pluck duck

muck

truck

What sound is common in these words?

Note to the teacher

- Let the children repeat the above words, one by one, noticing the 'ck' sound.
- The children need not know the meaning of these words.

HW

Say aloud

1. Sit outside your home, or in an open space and watch the clouds go by. Next day, tell the class what you saw.
