

Thank God

Answer the following questions:

1) If you meet a farmer, what would you say to him?

Ans - If I meet a farmer, I would thank him for the immense hardwork he does in the field to nurture the plants and provide us with food.

2) If you were in the place of the King, how would you have reacted?

Ans If I were in the place of the King, I would have been surprised as the farmer took a trouble of coming from a long distance to offer me the gift and also thankful and pleased with his gesture of making me privileged of gifting me the best fruits grown in his field.

3. "Since it is a long journey to the palace, I shall take the grapes as watermelons are too heavy."

a) Identify the speaker from the above extract.

Ans. The farmer is the speaker from the above extract.

b) State the reason behind the farmer's choice of taking the grapes to the king's palace.

Ans. The farmer decided to take the grapes instead of watermelons because the journey to the king's palace was long, and the watermelons were too heavy to be carried.