

Class Test 3
Topic: A Tale of Melon City and Father to Son
Full Marks 15

Section A: 2 Marks × 3 = 6 Marks

1. The poem 'A Tale of Melon City' treats responsibility as transferable rather than fixed. Comment briefly.
2. Explain why the emotional gap between the father and son is presented as irreversible.
3. The poem 'A Tale of Melon City' uses irony to question public responsibility. Comment

Section B: 3 Marks × 1 = 3 Marks

1. Assess how the father's tone moves between authority and helplessness.

Section C: 6 Marks × 1 = 6 Marks

1. Both the texts satire suggest that lack of accountability leads to quiet suffering. Examine with reference to both texts.