

Classwork. 22.01.2026

Chanda Mama Counts the Stars

Questions and answers -

1. "The number of lovely children is the same as the number of stars in the sky."

i. Can you identify the star quality in you?

ii. If you were a writer, with whom would you compare all the children of the world with?

2. The moon is called here as Chanda Mama. Is there any other name you call him in your language?

3. Chanda Mama was not able to count the stars. Write any other things you cannot count.

4. The moon is visible during the night. Write some other things you can see in the night sky.

5. Do you know the other name for a full moon? Name the festival that is celebrated on a full moon.

6. Write the other name for a new moon. Name the festival that is celebrated on a new moon.

7. Draw a picture of your favourite constellation (A group of stars forming a pattern).