

(i) A series of experiments conducted under extreme conditions _____ (reveal) anomalies that challenge established theories.

(ii) Error Correction : One of the criteria for selection is the candidate's ability to adapt quickly.

Error: Correction:

(iii) Narration : The examiner asked the candidate, "How long had you been preparing for this assessment before the syllabus was revised?"

(iv) If the safety protocols had been strictly enforced, the facility _____ far more reliable today.

(a) is (b) was © would be (d) would have been

(v) Error Correction : The manager emphasized maintaining transparency, to follow ethical standards, and accountability.

Error: Correction:

(vi) The data logs are intact; the system _____ have been compromised during the outage.

(a) must not (b) cannot © should not (d) need not

(vii) The final verdict _____ (announce) before the appeal was formally submitted.

(viii) Repeated _____ (inaccurate) in data entry weakened the credibility of the study.

(ix) Rarely _____ the committee _____ (reach) consensus without external mediation.

(x) Given his credentials, he _____ have been rejected for the position under normal circumstances.

(a) must not (b) could not © need not (d) would not

ANSWER

- i) Reveals
- ii) One of the criteria for selection is the candidate's ability to adapt quickly.
Error: Criteria Correction : Criterion
- iii) Narration: The examiner asked the candidate how long he had been preparing for that assessment before the syllabus was revised.
- iv) Correct answer: would have been

Past unreal condition → present result

- v) Error: to follow Correction: following
- vi) Correct answer: (b) cannot
- vii) Had been announced
- viii) Inaccuracies
- ix) Rarely does the committee reach consensus without external mediation.
- x) Correct answer: (b) could not