

Instructions: Each sentence contains one error only. Identify the error and write the correct form.

1. By next July, she will complete five years as the editor of the school magazine.
2. The teacher advised that the paragraph can be rewritten to improve clarity and coherence.
3. He behaves as though he knew everything about the issue, though he is newly appointed.
4. The passengers were informed that the flight was being cancel due to technical issues.
5. She objected to his being treat unfairly by the selection committee.
6. Not only the students but also the instructor were confused by the sudden change in rules.
7. The boy promised his parents that he will not repeat the mistake under any circumstances.
8. The proposal was rejected on the grounds that it lacked sufficient financial backing.
9. The witness claimed that he has seen the accused near the spot on the previous night.
10. Hard work, along with patience and discipline, lead to long-term success in life.
11. He was warned that he need not disobey the instructions given by the supervisor.
12. The manager asked her what was she planning to present at the annual meeting.
13. She has little knowledge on international trade policies and market trends.

14. The report is one of the documents that was submitted to the authority yesterday.
15. The students said that the examination will postponed due to unforeseen circumstances.
16. No sooner did the committee finalize its decision than the members has begun debating its possible consequences.
17. The new policy aims by reducing the burden of taxes for middle-class families.
18. The goods were being dispatch to various locations when the strike was announced.
19. Everyone admired her for to speak so confidently in front of a large audience.
20. She asked me that whether I had completed the assigned task.
21. The committee members have been working hardly to finalize the report before the deadline.
22. Neither of the answers are convincing enough to justify the conclusion.
23. He is senior than most of his colleagues despite his young age.
24. The novel, as well as its sequels, have been translated into several languages.
25. Hardly had the speaker finished his address when the audience, along with several dignitaries, were standing to applaud his views on social reform.

Answer Key

1. Will complete → will have completed
2. Can be rewritten → should be rewritten
3. Knew → knows
4. Being cancel → being cancelled
5. Being treat → being treated
6. Were confused → was confused
7. Will not repeat → would not repeat
8. Grounds → ground
9. Has seen → had seen
10. Lead → leads
11. Need not disobey → must not disobey
12. Was she planning → she was planning
13. On → of
14. Was submitted → were submitted
15. Will postponed → would be postponed
16. Has begun → Began
17. By reducing → to reduce
18. Being dispatch → being dispatched
19. For to speak → for speaking
20. That whether → whether
21. Hardly → hard
22. Are convincing → is convincing
23. Than → to
24. Have been translated → has been translated
25. Were standing → was standing