

- (i) The archivist later discovered that several pages _____ (alter) long before the manuscript was officially catalogued.
- (ii) Error Correction : More than one participants have questioned the validity of the procedure.

Error: Correction:

- (iii) Narration : The inspector said to the staff, “Ensure that the equipment is recalibrated if any discrepancy is detected.”

- (iv) If a metal _____ beyond its elastic limit, permanent deformation occurs.

(a) is stretched (b) was stretched

© will be stretched (d) has been stretched

- (v) Error Correction :The proposal was rejected on the basis of lack of evidences.

Error: Correction:

- (vi) Modal Auxiliary : She left the meeting abruptly; something _____ have unsettled her.

(a) must (b) might © should (d) cannot

- (vii) Narration : The consultant asked, “Why would anyone imagine such a rapid turnaround?”

- (viii) Modal auxiliary: The committee insisted that the findings_____ be re-examined before publication.

- (ix) Fill in the blanks:

Repeated _____ (omit) in the financial records attracted regulatory scrutiny.

- (x) Tense: During his tenure as director, he _____ (approve) policies that were later sharply criticised.

(xi) Modal Auxiliary:

The warning signs were evident; the authorities _____ acted sooner.

(a) must have (b) should have © could have (d) need have

(xii) Narration : The curator said to the visitors, “Don’t touch the exhibits under any circumstances ”

ANSWER

(i) Had been altered

(ii) Error: participants / have

Correction: participant / has

Correct sentence: More than one participant has questioned the validity of the procedure.

(iii) Narration

The inspector instructed the staff to ensure that the equipment was recalibrated if any discrepancy was detected.

(iv) Correct answer: (a) is stretched

(v) Error: evidences Correction: evidence

(vi) Modal Auxiliary : Correct answer: (b) might

(vii) Narration

The consultant asked why anyone would imagine such a rapid turnaround.

(viii) Should be

(ix) Omissions

(x) Approved

(xi) Correct answer: (b) should have

(xii) Narration

The curator warned the visitors not to touch the exhibits under any circumstances.