

Read the passage and change the nouns into singular / plural where needed:

Two ox were working in the field, and one geese sat near their foot. A thieves tried to steal one knives from the shelves, but one children quickly informed the man. Near the stair a pair of spectacle and a pair of trouser were found.