

FAMILY AND COMMUNITY

CLASS TEST

Multiple Choice Questions

1. Assertion (A): A community is not only made up of people who live close by, but also of people who share the same beliefs, interests, and duties.

Reason (R): People in a community work together for collective well-being, which goes beyond merely living in the same area.

- (A) Both A and R are true, and R is the correct explanation of A.
- (B) Both A and R are true, but R is not the correct explanation of A.
- (C) A is true, but R is false.
- (D) A is false, but R is true.

2. Read the following statements carefully:

Statement 1: In a nuclear family, only parents and their children live together.

Statement 2: Joint families discourage cooperation and interdependence among members.

Statement 3: Families serve as the primary institution where children learn social values and responsibilities.

Which of the statements given above is/are CORRECT?

- (A) 1 and 2 only
- (B) 2 and 3 only
- (C) 1 and 3 only
- (D) 1, 2 and 3

3. Samprita's family has grandparents, uncles, aunts, and cousins all living together. During Diwali, everyone takes on a different task someone cooks, someone decorates, someone manages finances. This BEST reflects which type of family and value?

- (A) Nuclear family showing independence
- (B) Joint family showing selfishness
- (C) Nuclear family showing competition
- (D) Joint family showing division of labour and cooperation

4. In many Indian villages, during harvest season, neighbours help each other harvest crops without any payment, sharing food and labour. This tradition is called 'Shramdaan' or collective labour. Which feature of a community does this best convey?

- (A) Communities are formed only for business purposes.
- (B) Communities promote mutual aid, cooperation, and shared responsibility.
- (C) Communities function effectively only under government supervision.
- (D) Communities are built only on blood relationships.

5. Arjun's friends pressure him to bully a classmate who comes from a less wealthy family. Arjun refuses, recalling the values his family inbuilt in him respect for all, empathy, and kindness. Which of the following best explains the role of family here?

- (A) Family teaches children moral values that guide their behaviour in society.
- (B) Family only provides financial support to children.
- (C) Family teaches children to be competitive and self-focused.
- (D) Family has no influence on a child's social behaviour.

6. During a severe drought in a district, farmers from 12 villages form a water-sharing committee. They decide rules on how much water each village can draw from the common reservoir and rotate usage on different days. This situation BEST demonstrates:

- (A) Communities rely entirely on the government to solve their problems.
- (B) Communities compete for resources rather than sharing them.
- (C) Communities function without any need for cooperation.
- (D) Communities create and follow rules for the fair use of shared resources.