

STD – XI ENGLISH CORE GRAMMAR PRACTICE WORKSHEET

TRANSFORM THE FOLLOWING AFFIRMATIVE SENTENCES INTO NEGATIVE

1. As soon as the principal entered the auditorium, the students fell silent.
2. Only the evidence was examined carefully.
3. The scientist was willing to reconsider the hypothesis after receiving new evidence.
4. The old bridge is too fragile to withstand the pressure of heavy vehicles.
5. As soon as the final bell rang, the candidates began submitting their answer scripts.
6. Only a person with exceptional determination can overcome such persistent obstacles.
7. The witness mentioned the crucial detail during the investigation.
8. The instructions were too complicated for the new employees to follow without assistance.
9. As soon as the announcement was made, several parents approached the administration.
10. Only the most experienced members of the team could handle the negotiation successfully.
11. Everyone was aware of the financial difficulties faced by the department.
12. The mountain trail was too steep for the inexperienced trekkers to climb safely.

13. As soon as the researcher discovered the discrepancy, she informed the supervisor.
14. The revised policy addressed several concerns raised by the employees.