

CIVICS Class test last

1. The Election Commission of India is a _____ body because its existence is guaranteed directly by the Constitution rather than created by a law, and it is an _____ body because it is not controlled by any other branch of government.
2. To help visually impaired voters, the ECI provides ballot papers and voting machines with _____ markings.
3. For elderly citizens and people with disabilities who cannot visit a polling station, the ECI arranges _____ voting so they can vote from home.
4. In the First-Past-The-Post (FPTP) system, a winning candidate only needs to secure the _____.
5. In the Single Transferable Vote (STV) system, a candidate must reach a specific _____ of votes to win.
6. The President of India is chosen by an electoral body known as the _____, which is made up of elected members of _____.
7. In India's FPTP system, each territorial constituency elects only _____ representative to the Lok Sabha.
8. The ECI removes physical barriers at polling booths by providing ramps and _____ for voters with physical challenges.
9. The legendary Chief Election Commissioner who transformed the face of Indian elections through strict enforcement of the Model Code of Ethics in the 1990s was _____.
10. The Vice-President of India serves as the ex-officio chairman of the _____.

